FAQs

Does Unite funding include AiTs?

No, funding is only for Active Duty, Permanent Party, Reserve, Civilians (APF & NAF)

Can a unit use both APF and NAF funds together for an event?

Yes! APF dollars are used for the program and NAF dollars are used for the purchase of food and beverage.

Can Unite just cover food?

No. The NAF dollars must be used in conjunction with the APF dollars.

Can families be included?

Yes, however funding does not cover families.

Can we use the money to pay for retirements or change of commands?

No. This money is only to be used to build unit cohesion and squadron morale. Not authorized for ceremonies or other official functions. Contact Resource Management about SM&W funds.

Who all can use the Unite Funds?

Active Duty, Civilians (APF & NAF), and Reserve Units.

Does Funding change as squadron numbers increase/decrease?

No. Funding is set from the squadron's end strength from the previous fiscal year.

How do I find out how much money a squadron has?

Squadron POC and/or CC can contact the C3 for available funds.

Is this UEFs?

No. Please contact Resource Management at 82fss.fsrbl@us.af.mil

Revitalizing Squadrons

"...the beating heart of the Air Force"

The UNITE Program was developed to provide squadron leaders with the maximum flexibility to deliver programs that build cohesion for personnel within their unit. This includes Permanent Party assigned Active Duty, Reserve, and both APF and NAF Civilians.
